

FORUM 22ND NOVEMBER 2010

Professor Patricia O'Brien and Ray Murray

“Translating the rhetoric of person-centredness into reality and practice”

Professor Patricia O'Brien is the Chair of Disability Studies and Director of the Centre for Disability Studies at the Royal Rehabilitation Centre, Ryde, Sydney, Australia. Previously, Patricia spent five years as Director of the National Institute for Intellectual Disability at Trinity College in Dublin. Prior to this appointment she was Dean, Postgraduate Studies at the University of Auckland. She has a background in inclusive education and professional development for human service staff. Patricia is the co-editor of two books on models of partnership and support within human service agencies.

Ray Murray is a Disability Consultant in Sydney and Ireland. He has extensive experience in the delivery of courses on person-centred planning, personalization and facilitation. Ray is a former Research Associate at the NIID and was Associate Dean for Centre for Special Education Auckland College of Education. He is co-author of a book entitled: Human Services: Towards Partnership and Support.

Book Now – this will be a popular event!

Monday 22nd November 2010

Quality Hotel Barrycourt

20 Gladstone Road
Parnell, Auckland

Registrations: 9.30
Forum 10.00 – 12.30

Deaf interpreters will be present

For assistance with parking, please phone: 09 303 3789

Costs:	ADPN member organisations*	$30 per person
	Non members	$40 per person
		Morning tea included
EARLY BIRD registration before 3 rd November		$25 members/$35 non members
Payment required with booking
(Please include organisation name and names of people attending)
Cheques to:
Auckland Disability Providers Network		Postal address below.
Electronic payment may be made to: 010178 0039199 00		Please email notification
*Membership form available – contact: info@adpn.org.nz

Auckland Disability Providers Network Inc
PO Box 21 705, Henderson, Waitakere 0650
09 836 2083 info@adpn.org.nz www.adpn.org.nz